The eNewsletter of SDFC

Welcome to our new Email Newsletter

Welcome to the inaugural issue of Letter Perfect minuscule, an online mini publication to help keep SDFC members informed of news, events and items of interest in calligraphy and related arts. Note: Letter Perfect is the original, more extensive SDFC printed newsletter. Look for the next issue of Letter Perfect at the September meeting!

The SDFC fiscal year is from July 1 to June 30, which means it's time to renew your membership. Click here to download the membership form. Thanks for renewing your membership promptly.

The Guild wrapped up the 2014-2015 year with a variety of events. Many thanks to outgoing Board and volunteer members Victoria Kibildis, Terry Bajo and Wendy Watson-Diedrick for their efforts on behalf of SDFC.

Voting for the Birthday Card Contest will be held at the September 12th general meeting.

Entries for the Holiday Tea Invitation contest are being accepted. Submission deadline is September 25th. Voting will take place at the October 10th general meeting. Click here for contest entry form.

Master calligrapher and inventor of numerous typefaces, Hermann Zapf, passed away on Thursday, June 3, 2015. Much of the lettering that can be seen on signposts, computer screens and paper is due to Mr. Zapf.

Member Achievements

Naomi Lesberg has been recognized as the Poway Adult School Teacher of the Year! If you've ever taken a class with Naomi, you know this award is well-deserved. CONGRATULATIONS, Naomi!

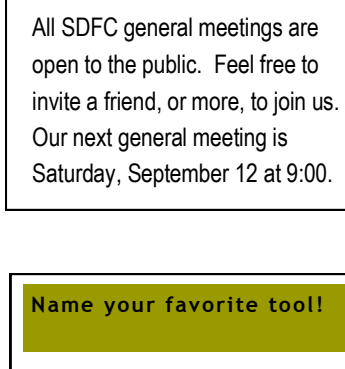

Another member, Donna Young, had 5 watercolor paintings accepted into the juried Fine Art Show at the San Diego County Fair. Two of the entries won awards, a second place and a third place. Hats off to Donna!

Some of us have vowed that at the September meeting we will show and share what we've done over the summer to "go further" with what we learned this year. Plan to bring at least one item (or a photo) of one of your projects.

Send your news, events and items of interest in calligraphy and related arts to eNewsletter Editor, Wendy Telford at:
